Poems

By Pavol Janik

Always when I think of you

dawn breaks above Buenos Aires

and the Atlantic has the inexplicable color of your eyes.

Exotic birds

nest on out TV aerial

until the announcer

has a pearly hairdo

and complete blonde smile.

She claims that eternity has already lasted a whole year.

The weather forecast

announces in her place

a rainbow parrot.

For our wedding route

it wishes us little cloudiness and success at least as large as the discovery of America or the record flight of the ostrich from Australia to the zoological gardens of Europe.

Always when I think of you

dawn breaks above Buenos Aires

The Atlantic does not admit any other continent.

It's clear as a stone of precious clarity.

Despite its twinkling depth it resembles a question which posed passionately by your body.

Children search tirelessly for an answer till now unwritten in books and cut out colorful pictures from it.

It happens at home
behind whose windows fireworks blaze every evening.

dawn breaks above Buenos Aires.
And today, too, the Atlantic is completely upset.
It's completely bashful as its accustomed only to invisible phenomena.
